HOME SWEET HOME

The Hawkeyes hosted The Iowa Duals in Carver-Hawkeye Arena on Nov. 16. They defeated Cornell College, 47-0, and No. 25 William Jewell, 43-3. Iowa is a perfect 7-0 inside of Carver-Hawkeye Arena since the start of the program. Seven Hawkeyes made their home debuts.

Against Cornell, Iowa recorded eight pins and three tech. falls and did not surrender a single point for the second time in program-history. In the match against William Jewell the Hawkeyes won all 10 bouts with one decision, five tech. falls, two pins and two forfeits.

FRESHMEN MAKING AN IMMEDIATE IMPACT

The Hawkeyes brought in a highly-touted freshman class for 2024. Through the first two weeks of the season they have hit the ground running. Rianne Murphy (103 lbs) and Naomi Simon (180 lbs) secured titles in back-to-back weekends. Val Solorio (110 lbs) reached the finals at the Luther Hill Open but fell to teammate and No. 1 ranked Ava Bayless. She went on to capture third at the Eagle Madness Open.

In Iowa's first duals of the season the freshmen class went 5-1 in two matches.

IOWA WOMEN'S WRESTLING

2023 NWCA National Duals Champions | 2024 NCWWC National Champions

HEAD COACH CLARISSA CHUN

Clarissa Chun is in her second season as head coach of the Iowa Hawkeyes. She was named the program's first head coach on Nov. 18, 2021.

In the inaugural season, the Hawkeyes captured two team national championships, had six individual champions and 12 All-Americans.

Prior to Iowa Chun was an assistant coach with the USA Wrestling women's national team from 2017-21. She worked under former Hawkeye national champion. Terry Steiner, Chun helped lead the United States to 17 World medals, including seven gold, four silver and six bronzes, as well as an Olympic gold, Olympic silver and two Olympic bronzes.

Chun is a two-time Olympian, where she took fifth at the 2008 Beijing Games before earning a bronze medal at the 2012 London Games, competing at 48 kg. Chun wrestled at five Senior World Championships, which included a gold-medal performance at the 2008 Worlds in Tokyo. She also competed at the 2000, 2009, 2011 and 2012 World Championships.

During her career, Chun won five U.S. Open titles. She was a 2011 Pan American Games silver medalist and won four gold medals at the Pan American Championships. She was a runner-up at four U.S. World Team Trials and three U.S. Opens, in a career which spanned 18 years competing at the Senior level.

CLARISSA CHUN'S HONORS

- USA Wrestling Women's Collegiate Coach of the Year (2024)
- NCWWC Coach of the Year (2024)
- The Open Mat Women's Collegiate Coach of the Year (2024)
- USA Today Iowa Woman of the Year (2024)
- National Wrestling Hall of Fame Distinguished Member (2022)
- Missouri Valley College Hall of Fame Member (2018)
- Hawaii Sports Hall of Fame (2018)
- Roosevelt High School Hall of Fame (2018)

NANEA'S ANTICIPATED RETURN

Redshirt-senior Nanea Estrella was one of two Iowa wrestlers who was ranked to begin the inaugural season in 2023. She went 8-2 to start the season before suffering a season-ending injury at US Senior Nationals in December. The Makawao, Hawaii, native made her return to the mat in Georgia where she pinned Reagen Gallaway of Hastings and against Life she won via tech. fall. over Netavia Wickson.

The following day at the Eagle Madness Open Estrella went 4-0 enroute to the 138 lbs. title. She had two victories via tech. fall and two pins. Estrella is currently ranked No. 5 at 138 lbs.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

- The Iowa roster is comprised of 32 student-athletes with 21 of them being returners and 11 newcomers.
- The breakdown of the roster is nine freshmen, 15 sophomores, three juniors, three seniors, one fifth year and one graduate student. Each class does include redshirt designations
- The Iowa reach is nationwide as 17 states are represented on the roster. The most represented state being California with six. Four Hawkeyes hail from Iowa.

NEWCOMERS

- The Hawkeyes added 11 newcomers to start the 2024-25 season; four transfers and 11 freshman.
- The transfers include 2024 Olympic Silver medalist Kennedy Blades, 2023 U23 World Silver medalist Macey Kilty, 2024 U23 World team member Skye Realin and
- Highlighting the freshmen class is four-time Iowa state champion Naomi Simon out of Decorah and two-time Iowa state champions Kiara Djoumessi out of Waverly.

THE SUMMER OF THE HAWKEYES

Iowa was well represented across the national and international wrestling stage this summer:

- 11 Hawkeyes competed at the 2024 Olympic Team Trials.
- Reese Larramendy and Briranna Gonzalez claimed U20 National titles in Spokane, Wash. while Nyla Valencia and Ella Schmit were the runner-ups at 50 kg and 65 kg, respectively. Sterling Dias finished in second at the U23 level.
- Ella Schmit brought home gold at the U20 Pan-Am games in Peru at 65 kg. Transfer Skye Realin brought back gold from U23 Pan-Am's in Colombia at 59 kg.
- Kennedy Blades signed with Iowa after already qualifying for the 2024 Paris Olympics. She ended up bringing home the silver medal at 76 kg.
- Freshman Naomi Simon traveled to Spain for the U20 World Championships in September where she brought home the bronze.
- Macey Kilty and Kylie Welker represented USA at the U23 and Senior World Championships in Albania. Kilty (62kg) brought home silver at U23's and Welker (72kg) captured the U23 World Title. Both captured bronze medals at senior worlds.

UP NEXT

The Hawkeyes head to Cedar Falls, Iowa for the 2025 NWCA National Duals on Jan. 10-11 at the UNI Dome.
