

International Programs, Center for Asian and Pacific Studies, Obermann Center for Advanced Studies, and Iowa Global Health Network

present

PANDEMIC, STATE & SOCIETY

A two-part webinar series featuring voices from Asia to discuss first-hand experiences in the region

PANDEMIC 101: VOICES FROM ASIA

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 8-9:30 P.M.(CST)

Panelists present an overview of the pandemic across Asia exploring the medical, social, and humanistic aspects of pandemics.

INVISIBLE COMMUNITIES

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 8-9:30 P.M.(CST)

How has the coronavirus pandemic impacted certain communities more than others? What have been the consequences of overlooking these communities?

REGISTER → INTERNATIONAL.UIOWA.EDU/PANDEMIC-STATE-SOCIETY

UI COLLABORATORS:

Global Health Studies Program, Department of Anthropology, Department of History, Department of Religious Studies, College of Nursing, Carver College of Medicine Global Health Program, College of Pharmacy, College of Dentistry International Affairs and Programs Committee, Department of Asian and Slavic Languages and Literatures, Pan Asian Council, King Sejong Institute, Korean Studies Research Network, Office of the Executive Vice President & Provost, and College of Public Health

COMMUNITY COLLABORATORS

Physicians for Social Responsibility, Iowa City Foreign Relations Council