IMPACT OF SHORT-TERM GLOBAL PROGRAMS IN THE EDUCATION OF DENTAL STUDENTS AT UNC

This presentation will describe the global experiences of dental students at ASOD-UNC, reflecting about the challenges in the preparation and selection of sites as well as the objectives in terms of service, research and learning experiences.

Luiz Andre Pimenta DDS, MS, MBA, PhD is a Professor in the Division of Comprehensive Oral Health at Adams School of Dentistry UNC. He has been involved in organizing and mentoring students in short-term global programs at ASOD-UNC for more the 10 years. He served as the first Assistant Dean of Global Initiatives at ASOD and during his tenure, the ASOD UNC had 12 sites around the world where the dental students had the opportunity to have global experiences related to Dentistry.

Sponsored by the College of Dentistry and Dental Clinics International Affairs and Programs Committee and the Office for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.
